

William J. Casey
Executive Vice President, Northeast Region
Arch Insurance Group

Career History

William Casey joined Arch Insurance Group in November 2008 with more than 30 years of industry experience. Based in Manhattan, Mr. Casey is responsible for the overall direction of Arch's Northeast region--managing the region's business development, distribution, staff and general operation.

Prior to Arch, he served as Senior Vice President, Deputy Head of Distribution at Zurich North America where he led distribution efforts for various Zurich products. During his 10-year career at Zurich, he also served in a number of management roles: Senior Vice President, Director of Field Operations for Zurich Specialties, National Marketing Director for all regions, and Northeast Regional Vice President in Corporate Marketing. Prior to his tenure at Zurich, he held leadership positions at Allied Coverage Corporation, Willis Corroon, Reliance, AIG and Hartford.

Education & Affiliations

B.S., Management, St. John's University
Executive Management Program, Northwestern University Kellogg Graduate School