

Elaine A. Trischetta
Executive Vice President, Casualty
Arch Insurance Group

Career History

Elaine A. Trischetta is the Executive Vice President, Casualty and oversees Specialty Casualty, Excess Casualty and Railroad Liability. She joined Arch in 2002 with over 30 years of insurance experience.

Prior to Arch, Ms. Trischetta has previously held executive and management positions at Zurich North America, ACE USA, Reliance National and AIG. She most recently served as Executive Vice President of the Casualty Division of Zurich Specialties, with responsibility for managing the company's Excess Casualty and Railroad Liability books of business. Prior to Zurich, she worked at ACE USA as Executive Vice President of the Professional Risk Services Division.

At Reliance National, Ms. Trischetta served as Executive Vice President of the Excess & Surplus Lines Division, which included Excess Casualty, Architects & Engineers, Lawyers Professional, Miscellaneous Professional and Healthcare products. She managed the Global Excess Casualty product line at AIU, working with underwriters located in Europe, Asia, Australia, and the United States.

Education & Affiliations

BA, Economics, City University of New York at Richmond
Advanced Executive Program, The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania